If you agree with your assessment, no action is needed. If you disagree with your assessment, there are options available to you:

1. You may visit our office at the location listed above; or
2. You may file an appeal by mail starting August 15, 2026.

If you are unable to visit our office during this time period OR you wish to bypass this step, you may submit a formal appeal to the APPJ Board of Review. These forms are available at our office listed above or on the Louisiana Tax Commission's website. The 2026 appeal forms and supporting documentation/evidence must be submitted to the APPJ Board of Review by 4:30 PM Tuesday, September 1, 2026.

If you choose, you may visit our office and discuss your value in person during the "Open Roll" period. If you are requesting a review of your assessment, please bring documentation such as a recent appraisal, a builder's contract, photos, or your insurance coverage on the building.

For more information regarding your property assessment, visit our website at www.acadiaassessor.org. If you believe you may qualify for a Homestead Exemption, Age Freeze or Disability Freeze, please come to our office or visit our website before August 30, 2026 to apply. You do not need to come to our office during the open roll period.

Thank you for allowing us the opportunity to serve you.
